CHICAGO'S CROWD.

Great Preparations for the Celebration of Columbus Day.

The School Children Given a Three Days' Vacation and Will Celebrate in a Becoming Manner.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—A crisp invigorating atmosphere, its touch of frost gently tempered by the genial rays of the sun as it looks down from a cloudless sky, comes as a welcome relief after the rain and drizzle and mist of yesterday and last night and might be interpeted as a special recognition from the elements for the opening day of the period set a part for the festivities incident to the dedication of the structures designed for the purposes of the World's Columbian exposition. The change in the weather was doubly welcome to the thousands of visitors of greater or less renown already upon the ground and who yesterday were commisserating with one another over the prospect that the great event in prospective bade fair to be marred by the unpropitiousness of the elements. No less grateful either are the people of Chicago themselves.

Yesterday the work of decorating had perforce to be suspended and the flags and banners and streamers that had already been hung upon the outer walls commenced to betray evidences of a drooping spirit, such as is popularly supposed to possess a drowned rat, but under the inspiration of the sunshine, the stars and stripes and tri-colored bunting are again floating proudly, and an array of decorators are cheerfully whistling and humming occasional snatches of patriotic melodies as they climb up the ladders, over roofs and casements and in and out of windows, putting forth every onegy so that the city may speedily receive the finishing touches to her dedication week attire. The hotels are already as full as they need be. There are crowds at the large ones and small ones alike and at some of them, notably at the Auditorium, the Palmer and the Grand Pacific, it is difficult at times to force a way through the crowds that fill the rotundas, surging in the wakes of this man and of that of national reputation and now and then calling for a cheer as somebody of particular note is recognized.

In many respects the scenes are vivid reminders of those that were enacted here but a few months since when the representative democrats of the nation assembled to select their standard bearers. Big placards announced the location of the headquarters of the various delegations. The latch string is in most cases on the outside and is momentarily brought into requisition, while the faces of so many of the guests bring back recollections of the wigwam and of the exciting scenes that were enacted within its walls. At the Auditorium, in fact, it only lacks, as a member of Governor Flower's party jocularly remarked this morning, the royal Bengal tiger at the head of the stairs to make believe the days of July were here again. But largeas the crowd already is on the ground it is not a circumstance to that which may be expected by sundown. Special trains packed with men and women of note and distinction are speeding Chicagoward from pretty well every state and territory, while the ordinary trains are running in two, three and in some cases four sections. At times this this morning the tide of humanity poured itself out of the Union and Grand Central depots as if it never intended to stop.

It was well on toward daylight this morning when Gov. Toole of New Hampshire, with his staff and party, reached the city, their train being several hours late. The carriages on hand were barely sufficient for the accommodation of the ladies and so the governor headed the procession on foot at 10 o'clock to extend a welcome to Governor McKinley and the delegation from the Buckeye state. They came in force, 250 of them, members both branches of the legislature, representatives of the judicial bench, officials of the various state departments and the members of the state board of world's fair managers. A committee from the local directors was in waiting to welcome the Ohioians and the appearance of the little Napoleon of protective tariff was the signal for a roar of cheers from the crowd, that fairly shook the building. Thirty-five carriages had been provided for the party and these were quickly filled, while those not fortunate enough to secure a seat or too proud to get up alongside the driver were content to fall in behind and tail the procession to the Victoria hotel.

The Buckeye train had scarcely been gotten out of the depot when the delegation from the Keystone state rolled in. Governor Pattison was one of the first to alight from the front end of the second car, while from the rear end peered forth a face that has become generally known to newspaper readers within the last few years—that of Chief Justice Paxton—whose charge to the grand jury in the Homestead treason cases is still creating so much of national sensation. Close behind him alighted Major Gen. George N. Snowden, who had command of the troops at Homestead. The remainder of the party, to a total of nearly 100, was made up of the governor's staff, state officials, and members of the state world's fair committee.

A silken flag, as bright in colors as it is superfine in texture, floats proudly this noon from the roof of every public school house in Chicago and Cook county. It is children's day. The little ones who toddle to the infant school to learn their first letters; the big ones who have mounted step by step on the ladder of instruction to the high school, and are now about ready to go forth and battle with the world—the rising generation—those who will aid a few years hence, through the ballot-box, in controlling the destinies of the nation—these it is that have been selected to inaugurate the celebration of the week.

Tens of thousands of youthful voices—voices robust and strong, voices weak and piping, joined this morning all over this city and its suburbs in the grand old strains of "America" and it was sung with an enthusiasm and patriotic fervor that in itself was an inspiration. It was a great day for the children and very few seats were empty in any of the school houses. They wore their Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes in honor of the occasion, and while the boys proudly sported a button bearing the stars and stripes; the girls not to be behind hand in a demonstration of love of country, had tiny American flags fastened to the bosoms of their dresses. The program of one school was that of all. As an overture the principal read the patriotic proclamation of President Harrison declaring Friday next a general holiday, an announcement that was invetably received with enthusiasm, intensified when the principal supplemented it with the statement that the board of education had decided to go a step farther than the chief executive and lock up the school houses until Monday next. After this, the scholars, four abreast marched out to the play ground, where they stood in solid batallions, heads uncovered, while the stars and stripes were hoisted and unfurled. A word of command from the teachers and every hand touched the forehead in military salute, while every tongue repeated a solemn pledge of all allegiance to the flag and the republic, "one nation, indivisible with liberty and justice for all." After the outburst of earnest cheering that followed this demonstration of patriotism, the indoor exercises were resumed with the singing of "America" and Edna Dean Proctor's ode. "Columbia's Banner" was recited by the scholars in unison. Then there were declamations and readings and recitations, each having patriotism as its inspiring motive. As a finale the strains of "The Flag of the Free," echoed through the school houses and at the word of dismissal the scholars made a wild break for the street with cheers for Christopher Columbus and a three day's holiday.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Republican simplicity attended the arrival of Governors Boies, of Iowa, and Frances, of Missouri. They occupied the director's car and were unaccompanied. After alighting from the train they walked arm in arm to the street. Through some mistake there was no reception committee in waiting to greet them, but they were recognized by many people in the crowded depot, who gave the word around, and initiated a hearty burst of cheering. Both governors registered at the Auditorium. Governor Chase, of Indiana, and a large delegation from that state arrived shortly after noon. As the morning wore on and the noon hour passed, the inpour of visitors increased, and the streets in the business section took on a very overcrowded appearance, while vehicles of all kinds did a rushing business. All the principal hotels posted notices that they can accept no more guests, and the boarding and rooming houses within walking distance of the parade district are filling up like magic.

RECORD BREAKER.

The City of Paris Again Lowers the Record Across the Atlantic.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The steamship City of Paris, of the Inman line has again broken the westward record from Queenstown which was made by her when she made the run in July in five days, fifteen hours and twenty-eight minutes. She also beats the record for a single day's run by covering 530 miles against a record of 528 miles made by the Teutonic. The City of Paris sailed from Liverpool on October 12 and Queenstown on the 13th and arrived at Sandy Hook lightship a little after midnight last night, covering a distance of 2,782 miles in five days, fourteen hours and twenty-four minutes, beating the record by one hour and thirty-four minutes. Her days runs were as follows: 448, 508, 503, 505, 530 and 288.

A MISSING COMMISSIONER

Who is Being Sought After by Numerous Creditors.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—F. H. Magee, commissioner of insolvency in 1887 and a lawyer with an office in the Adams building, has been missing for about six weeks and it is said that he owes some of his friends and clients large sums of money. It is alleged that he has borrowed large sums, which in some cases he has failed to repay. In other cases he is said to have given worthless checks in payment. One rumor says that he collected for a client, Mrs. Isabella Ray, $2,000 for injuries received at the time of the Buzzey bridge disaster. This money he is said to have paid to her in the first place, and soon after borrowed it and failed to return it.

An Editor's Death.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 19.—Major David E. Caldwell, late editor and proprietor of the Lexington Transcript, died at St. Josephs hospital yesterday, aged fifty-one years. Major Caldwell was a successful publisher, a prominent Free Mason and Odd Fellow and a valued citizen.

A STATE OF TERROR.

Warring Factions Making It Interesting for Kentucky.

The Shipps and Skaggs Ready to Anihilate Each Other—Tara Boom-de-Ree.

LEBANON, Ky., Oct. 19.—The town of Scott's Ridge, fifteen miles west of this city, is in a perfect state of insurrection, and a desperate battle is looked for at any moment between the Shipps on one side and the Skaggs and Underwoods on the other. Each side numbers about twenty-five heavily armed men, and the death of a dozen or more men at any time will be no surprise. Citizens have been warned and travel through that section has entirely ceased. The trouble grew out of three men outraging Spake Shimm's wife several weeks ago. Buley Skaggs and man named Underwood were arrested, charged with the crime, but were finally released. The latter now threaten to wipe out the Shipps, which will prove a hazardous undertaking, as the Shipps know no fear. Two years ago Bob Shipps killed Bud Buaress and badly wounded his brother Tom, in a shooting scrape on the same grounds now occupied by the warring factions.

A BOGUS PRINCE.

An American Who Says He is Queen Victoria's Son-in-Law.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The pretended Prince of Teck, who has been personating Queen Victoria's son-in-law in a way that indicated unsoundness of mind, provgs to be an American, whose real name is Heidlebourg, and a son of worthy parents in the United States. His swindling has been of such a clumsy character, and his assumption of princely title so obviously bogus and extravagant that the authorities are inclined to accept the plea of his friends that he is insane. When arraigned on an indictment at the Old Bailey today, the bogus prince pleaded guilty. He was represented by counsel, engaged by his relatives, who suggested that the prisoner was a lunatic, and should be treated as such. It was shown by the prosecution that the pretended prince has been previously convicted of fraudulent practices at Liverpool. Sentence was deferred in order to enable further inquiry to be made as to his antecedents and mental condition.

BLATANT BLUFFER.

Mitchell Again Heard From, but He Will Never Meet "Gentleman Jack."

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The Police Gazette's London correspondent sends the following: The appeal of Charley Mitchell in his case, for which Police Justice Vaughan sentenced him to two months hard labor came up yesterday and was postponed until January. Great interest was manifested over the result, and in the court were Richard K. Fox, Lord Londsdale and other famous sportsmen. It is the general opinion that the case will be quashed in January. After the court proceedings Mitchell called at the Sporting Life office and stated that he was now prepared to fight Jim Corbett for $10,000 a side, the fight to be decided in May in New Orleans if the Olympic club offers the largest purse.

IN MAN'S ATTIRE.

She Drank Whisky, Used Tobacco and Played Poker.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Oct. 19.—A sensation has been created by the arrest at Alba, Monroe county, of a woman who has for several months been supposed to be a man, being employed on the railroad as a laborer. She wore male attire, drank whisky, used tobacco and played poker. The robbing of a millinery store a few days ago led to her arrest on suspicion, when the discovery of her sex was made. She is about thirty years old, says she has been married and has a son eight years old, who is living with his grand parents in Indiana. She refused to give her name and declares that she will never wear petticoats again.

A SETTLEMENT POSSIBLE

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—There is a prospect of a speedy settlement of the strike of the telegraphers of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railway. Chief Ramsey, of the Brotherhood of Telegraphers, and Past Chief Thurston, arrived in the city last night and immediately went into executive session. To a reporter Mr. Ramsey said that A. A. Robinson, of Topeka, would arrive this morning and with Allen Manvel, president of the Santa Fe, would meet the officers of the brotherhood, when an attempt to settle the difficulty will be made.

THEY WERE MARRIED.

A Big Wagon Works' President Takes a Bride.

RACINE, Wis., Oct. 19.—Miss Katharine Knapp, the youngest daughter of Frederick Knapp, president of the Knapp Elevator works, of Chicago, and Charles F. Milburn, president of the Milburn Wagon company, of Toledo, were married at St. Luke's Episcopal church last evening. The bride is one of Racine's cultivated and leading society ladies, and the groom is one of the leading business men of Toledo.

WENT TO CANADA

Because He Was Short in His Accounts $15,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Charles Wentworth Orde is the name of a dapper young man about whom genteel society of the north side is talking in an agitated way these days. His name was coupled in matrimonial probabilities with a beautiful belle. Now Mr. Ordo has gone and left behind him the belle, society set and all, and the American Exchange National bank, of this city, deplores his absence to the tune of thousands of dollars. Mr. Orde was in charge of the country accounts. About ten days ago the bank clerk's accounts were overhauled and a shortage of about $15,000 was discovered. Mr. Ordo ascertaining that he was suspected, packed up his clothes and left, it is said, for Canada.

A HORRIBLE DEED!

A Husband Kills His Wife and Secrets Her Body.

He is Arrested While Digging a Grave in the House for Her Remains.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—A horrible affair has come to light at Old Hall, near Melchester. A man named Mellor lived in a house on the Hollings road at that place. His wife has been missing for some time, but apparently nothing has been seriously suspected. Some neighbors today, paying an unexpected visit to Mellor's house, noticed that a hole had been dug in the kitchen, having every appearance of being intended as a grave for somebody. They informed the police, who at once proceeded to the house. The police made a search and soon found a body in the cellar. It was thought to be that of Mellor's wife. Her throat had been cut and the body was covered with stab wounds, showing that she had met a cruel death by violence. The remains were in such a condition that it appeared the woman had been dead for weeks. A barrel of quick lime was found in another room, no doubt intended for use in the grave. Mellor has been put under arrest.

MEXICAN OUTLAWS.

The People Stirred Up Over Their Depredations.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 19.—The recent depredations committed by Mexican outlaws in Starr and other border counties have stirred up the people in that section and the authorities are making strong efforts to cauture the perpetrators of the outrages. Monday a band of them was discovered near the Palito Blanco ranch, which is the home of Alejandero Gonzales, the father-in-law of Catarrino Garza. Four Texas rangers, led by Captain Loubito Ramerz, made an attack on the bandits. Several shots were exchanged, and Ramerz was wounded. The Rangers closed on the outlaws and captured four of them. The prisoners were formerly members of Garza's socalled revolutionary army, and have been leading the lives of bandits ever since that movement was squelched. They will be brought to San Antonio for trial.

MRS. HARRISON.

There is Change in Her Condition Today.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The informal statement of Mrs. Harrison's condition obtained day by day at the white house was no different in its terms this morning from what it has been almost unvaryingly since the return of the invalid from Loon Lake. Mrs. Harrison passed the night in comparative ease with recurrent lapses of sleep and wakefulness and today there is no perceptable change in her condition except perhaps a lesser degree of the nervousness from which she suffered yesterday. The usual amount of nourishment was given her and she was able to take and retain it. Mrs. Harrison has lost much flesh since her confinement.

DECLINES TO RUN

Because He is on the Retired List in the Regular Army.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 19.—General Isaac S. Catlin, who was nominated for congress by the democrats of the Third congressional district of Kings county, has declined, declaring that he is ineligible for the office because he is on the retired list of the regular army and the recipient of a pension. He says that he has been informed by the attorney general of the United States that his acceptance of the office would vacate his place on the list of the regular army, and in consequence he would forfiet its emolant. Gen. Daniel E. Sickels, who was nominated in this city for congress, General Catlin says, is in the same fix.

SHOOK THE TOWN.

A Natural Gas Explosion at Anderson, Ind.

ANDERSON, Ind., Oct. 19.—A fatal natural gas explosion occurred here this morning and the shock was felt all over town. Frank Platter, of the firm of Platter & Son, pump manufacturers, attempted to light a grate fire when accumulated gas caused a terrific wreck. The building fell in on the unfortunate man and he was removed from the debris fatally injured.

BET ON SULLIVAN.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 19.—During the trial of a suit against John W. Graeter, of Vincennes, brought by James C. Pritchett, attorney, to collect for professional services, Mr. Graeter testified that he lost $26,000 on the Sullivan-Corbett fight. He is the man who shot and killed Isadore Meyer and A. C. Leech, at Bald Knob, Ark., during a fit of insanity.

Burning Up.

A telegram reached this office this afternoon that Blaine, a small town in Jay county, was burning up.

Mrs. Cass Hunter delightfully entertained a few friends last evening at tea in compliment to Miss Jennie McKay and Mr. Harry N. Ball, of Michigan.

A RECEIVER ASKED FOR.

The Western Manufacturers' Mutual Insurance Company Wants an Accounting.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—A bill for a receiver was filed in the circuit court yesterday against the Western Manufacturers' Mutual Insurance company by the Pillsbury-Washburn Flour Mills company, the Star Elevator company, the Columbia Mill company, the Siddle-Fletcher-Holmes company, Frazer & Shepard, E. R. Barber & Co., and Stamvitz & Schoeber, all of Minneapolis, and the LaGrange mills, of Red Wing, Minn. The defendant corporation was organized to carry on a general fire insurance business on the mutual plan under the laws of Illinois. The bill alleges that in January, 1891, the company practically stopped doing business and reinsured all its policy holders in three New York companies, having at the time net assets between $50,000 and $100,000. The officers were: President, Palmer A. Montgomery; vice president, Wm. H. Turner; secretary, George D. Farr. It is charged that these officers have not caused a meeting to be held within the last three years and have controlled the company for their own personal uses, Montgomery and Farr becoming the agents of the New York concerns in which they reinsured the risks of the western manufacturers.

WHITELAW REID.

His Letter of Acceptance Discusses Questions Now Before the Public.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Hon. Whitelaw Reid's letter of acceptance of the nomination and principles of the republican party platform emphasizes the importance of the party platform in this campaign; announces the tariff and currency as the vital issues; compares and contrasts with great elaboration the respective platforms of the two great parties on these two issues. It contrasts a tariff for revenue only and a tariff for revenue so adjusted as to afford protection to industries that stand in the greatest need of it. He also maintains that the McKinley tariff has vindicated itself and that its reciprocity clause is a wise provision for cases in which it may become possible hereafter to reduce our tariff, inasmuch as it provides for securing in that event commercial advantage to the country. The question at issue on the protective tariff is as to its constitutionality, expediency, relation of wages, practical workings, and the question whether when it is reduced we should get returns for trade advantages offered other nations, or get something in return for them. It is argued that the constitutionality of a protective tariff has been passed upon favorably by Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, and later by George Ticknor Curtis. The expediency has been shown by the last thirty years' experience. Democratic officials and savings banks officers show in official reports that wages under the tariff have increased. It continues with an elaborate statistical argument as to the rapid increase of wealth, general prosperity and increase of commerce under the tariff.

The letter in the closing part is largely devoted to the currency question, in which especial attention is given to the proposition to denationalize our currency and to sectionalize it by a return to the old state bank system.

JOHN JACOB ASTOR

Buys a Hotel, but for Speculation Purposes Only.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The announcement is made of the sale of the St. Cloud hotel at the corner of Broadway and Sixty-second street for $850,000. The purchaser was John Jacob Astor. He has no intention at present of re building or in any wise altering the property. It was bought merely as a real estate investment for surplus funds, in connection with the well known policy of the Astors, and the hotel proprietors will continue to run the St. Cloud on the same lines as in the past few years.

Centlivre's Fliers.

Nidia, the handsome two-year-old pacer, owned by Centlivre Bros., paced the second heat of a race yesterday at Nashville, Tenn., in the remarkable time of 2:20¾. It will be remembered that she paced a mile over the track of the Fort Wayne Driving club. Nidia is sired by Wayne Wilkes, 2:16, owned by E. M. Powers, of this city, she being the fastest two year-old sired and owned in Indiana.

Photographic Enterprise(?)

About four years ago a certain party named De Lamos humbuged the people of Fort Wayne by advertising to make cabinet photos at $1 per dozen. After making several hundred socalled sittings (always getting the dollar in advance) he decamped for parts unknown without finishing up his work.

You will make and save money by patronizing your own citizens, among whom is M. C. Stanton, who has invested his money in Fort Wayne and makes the very best work at prices that are the lowest consistant with honest, upright, legitimate business.

Eight members of the city council of Wapakoneta came to this city yesterday evening to inspect the working of the electric light system. They visited the electric light works last night and spent this morning in looking over the city. Among those in the party were: B. D. Clover, C. T. Kolter, Wm. Kreitzer, Eugene Kinchner and Joseph E. Gunther. They left for home at noon today.

EARLY VISITORS.

Notables Pass Through the City This Morning.

Governor Pattison Interviewed by "The Sentinel"—Cabinet Officers and Supreme Justices.

At 7:05 this morning the first section of the special train bearing the cabinet officers and other distinguished Americans bound for the Chicago celebration arrived in the city over the Pennsylvania railroad.

Conductor J. P. Kickley brought the train in from Crestline. On board the train, which was a long one, were members of the world's fair commission; Governor Pattison, of Pennsylvania, and staff;

GOV. PATTISON.

Maj. Gen. George R. Snowden, commanding the military division; General Wiley and staff, of the Second Brigade; Colonel Bosbyshell, of the U. S. mint, and staff, commanding the First Brigade; Justice Paxton, of the supreme court; Colonel Case, of the Third Brigade, and a large number of distinguished guests.

Governor Pattison is the popular convention democratic governor of the great republican state of Pennsylvania—the man who is now serving the second term for governor in a state which has a 20,000 republican majority.

Governor Pattison was seen in the observation car, in the rear of the train, by a SENTINEL representative. He was having a quiet after-breakfast chat with Justice Paxton, General Snowden and one or two others. He greeted the newspaper man kindly.

"Governor, what is the political outlook in Pennsylvania this year?" was asked.

The governor said laughingly, "Well, never mind the political situation of Pennsylvania this morning. We have laid aside our politics and prophesies for the next four days and are going to Chicago to help celebrate a grand national holiday. Pennsylvania is all right, isn't it my republican brother?" speaking to one of his republican friends at his elbow."

"How is New York, governor?" was asked.

Well, New York is all right, too, but as I said, we are out for a national celebration and politics form no part of the great occasion."

The interviewer saw that it was of no use to try and get an expression on politics from the governor, who is an American first and a politician afterward, and the conversation turned upon other topics, the governor kindly giving the information as to the people aboard his train.

The first section remained but a few moments—just long enough to change engines. But few stops are being made, as everything needed for comfort and pleasure could be found on board the magnificent train.

THE SECOND SECTION.

The first section had hardly passed out of sight when the second section came in at 7:15. On this section were the cabinet officers and other dignitaries. Among them were Secretary of State Foster, Attorney General Miller, Postmaster General Wannamaker, Secretary of the Navy Tracy and Secretary of the Interior Noble.

SECRETARY FOSTER.

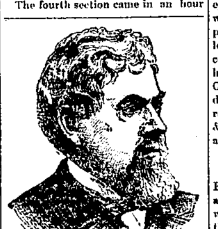

Mrs. Noble and Mrs. Foster both accompanied their husbands, and Secretary Tracy was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Wilmerding, and his grand daughter, Miss Wilmerding. Miss Elkins, daughter of Secretary of War Elkins, was also with the party. On board the same section were Lieutenants Southerman, Cowles and Dapray, of the navy, and Mr. Dawson, private secretary to one of the cabinet officers. This section was in charge of Mr. A. T. Ewing, of the Illinois World's Fair commission.

THE THIRD SECTION.

On the third section, which came in immediately after the second section had changed engines and pulled out, were the heads of the judiciary department of the United States. They were: Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller, of Illinois; Justice John M. Harlan, of Kentucky; Justice Horace Gray, of Massachusetts; Justice Samuel Blatchford, of New York; Justice David J. Brewer, of Kansas; Justice Henry B. Brown, of Michigan, and Justice Oliver P. Shirar, of Iowa, late judge of the United States district court from the northern Iowa district. The ladies in the party were Mrs. Melville Fuller, Mrs. Brewer, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Shirar and Miss Brewer. With the party were also J. H. McKenney, clerk of the supreme court, of Washington; Marshal of the court, Maj. J. M. Wright, of Kentucky; Mrs. J. H. McKenney, Frederick D. Faust and Mr. Wilkie, of Chicago, who had charge of the train. Superintendent M. Main, of the Pullman company, was also on board.

THE FOURTH SECTION.

The fourth section came in an hour

SECRETARY NOBLE.

later. On board this train were a large number of the foreign diplomatic corps, including the Chinese minister and his full suite.

For convenience we have mentioned the sections as they arrived, first, second, etc., but in point of fact, the limited (No. 5) which came in late, was the first section of the entire train.

The fifth section of No. 5, bearing the diplomatic corps of the United States, ran into a hand car at Monroeville. No one was hurt, but the hand car was smashed to pieces and the pilot of the engine quite badly damaged.

Senator John Sherman and other notables were on the first section of train No. 25, which came in at 12:40.

RESIDENTS of Naples have proved that they have in them the stuff of which American citizens are made. At a recent celebration there enough people were killed and maimed by fireworks to have given eclat to a Fourth of July in this country.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S playful remark about "pulverizing Russia" appears to have made more of an impression in Europe than a large, life-sized earthquake, and inspired the Czar to put a chip on both of his epaulettes.

COULD NOT AGREE.

This Was the Jury's Verdict in the McCaffrey Case.

The case of Thomas McCaffrey vs. the Pennsylvania railroad was closed yesterday noon and the jury then retired for deliberation. They deliberated on the case until this morning, when they brought in a verdict saying that they could not agree.

McCaffrey, the plaintiff in the suit, was an employe of the riveting gang of the Pittsburg shops and about three years ago lost the sight in one of his eyes by a piece of steel flying into it while he was at work, alleging in his petition that it was through the carelessness of the company. He sued the company for $5,000 damages. The case has been on trial before Judge O'Rourke and a jury for the last two days. Judge Ninde and W. J. Vesey represented the plaintiff and Zollars & Calvert the defendant. There will be another trial of the case.

A SLANDER SUIT.

The case of Katie Miller against Eliza Vaschon for slander, the plaintiff asking damages in the sum of $2,000, was decided in the superior court by the jury awarding the plaintiff $5 and costs. Both parties reside in the country. The damages asked for were for an alleged defamation of character.

COURT CULLINGS.

There was no police court this morning.

Suit was begun in Justice Wilkinson's court yesterday by Charles Weise against H. Bickel for $5.75. The case is set for hearing on October 21, at 9 o'clock.

Kryder lots 149 and 253, Lakeside park, for $1,200; Christian Schneider to John Schneider lot 79, Beck's second addition, for $1,000.

Jacob Trampel commenced suit yesterday in Justice Wilkinson's court to recover a lot of household goods from Elizabeth Failour. The case is set for hearing on the 21th inst., at 9 o'clock. When Constable Schlaudroff served the papers in the case on the defendant she fainted.

Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. Have tried forty other remedies before Simmons Liver Regulator, and none of them gave more than temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved but cured.

THIS DAY IN THE PAST.

1492—Columbus confronted by a mutiny: the sailors declared that all the favorable signs of the last three days were delusions to beguile them to destruction; at sundown they rose in revolt, and the life of the commander was in great danger; it is asserted that he promised to turn back if land was not seen in three days, but his journal makes no mention of it; it should not be forgotten that in the standard histories this date is given as the 10th, that being old style.

COLUMBUS DAY will be generally observed next Friday.

THE long winter nights are rapidly approaching and every one needs a daily home paper. Take THE SENTINEL, for it gives the news, local and telegraph.

THE SENTINEL is glad to hear that the Pittsburg shops of this city are increasing their force of employes. When labor is in demand every kind of business prospers.

HON. JOHN G. SHANKLIN, of Evansville, spoke to an immense audience at Randall Hall on the political issues of the day last night. His speech was a brilliant one and won him many friends.

LAWYERS, says a writer, stand up in court houses before juries in the presence of large audiences and denounce men as liars, scoundrels, perjured villians, and when court adjourns the men thus abused appear to harbor no ill will against them. But let a newspaper faintly intimate that a man's character is not entirely without blemish and the editor has to confront a horse pistol, stand a libel suit, or at least suffer the greatest of all mortifications—lose a subscriber.

DR. JOHN CLARK RIDPATH, the historian, within a few days will have completed another work, a history of the five great races. For a number of years Dr. Ridpath has labored on the subject, which has required the closest scrutiny and the most untiring research. The work, which will be published in seven volumes, will be the most valuable contribution to historical literature in recent years. Dr. Ridpath is the greatest living American historian and it is a matter of pride to Indiana that he is a Hoosier.

THE process of voting under the new system is a simple one, and there will be no occasion for mistakes on the part of any one who takes the slightest precautions. To vote a straight ticket stamp within the square at the head of the ticket, and stamp nowhere else. If you stamp the square at the head of the ticket, and stamp elsewhere as well, you lose your vote. If you desire to vote a mixed ticket, stamp within the squares opposite the names of the persons for whom you wish to vote, and stamp nowhere else. Fold your tickets so that the initials of the poll clerks, on the corner, will show, and hand them to the election officer. This is all there is to it.

SOUTH BEND residents are objecting to the style of building proposed for the new postoffice in that city, and are petitioning the supervising architect to hold the construction in abeyance until an appeal can be made to congress for a more liberal appropriation. Congress appropriated $75,000 for buildings and site, and $15,000 was paid for the site. There are other expenses which reduced the amount in hand to $58,000. The supervising architect proposes to construct a one-story building, but South Bend objects to a squatty structure, and demands that it be given the same style of quarters as Fort Worth, Tex., Lexington, Ky, and cities of a similar class.

Money in Politics.

The present political campaign is being conducted in a quiet manner and the big processions of former years are few. The days of intense political excitement and the use of millions of money, happily, seem to be a thing of the past and people are deciding for themselves how they will vote. It is a campaign of education, and brass bands and big political meetings have ceased to have their influence in moulding public opinion, and this is best. Too much money has been squandered in the past by both political parties during campaign year and we are glad to see that neither of the parties are doing it this year. The ward bummer has almost lost his occupation as a politician. Let our campaigns be free from the money influence and people will vote their honest sentiments. With money eliminated from these contests politics will be much purer and the country will be better off.

We have always admired the late Governor Hovey for his reply to the state republican committee when he was assessed $1,000 for campaign purposes after he was nominated for governor. He said: "I have no money for campaign purposes. I would rather be defeated without money than to be elected by the use of money."

HOOSIER HASH.

News of Interest From Different Parts of the State.

Mrs. Mary Campbell, ninety-four years old, of Valparaiso, is dead. She was the mother of the Hon. Marvin Campbell, of South Bend.

Miss Flo Burgess, of Richmond, attempted to alight from a moving electric car, and she was stunned by the fall and her left wrist was broken.

A very bitter editorial fight is "on" between the Shelbyville Republican and the Shelbyville Democrat, and tart things are being said both ways.

A great religious awakening is attending the union evangelistic meetings at New Albany, led by Evangelist C. H. Yatman, under direction of the ministerial association.

Over 18,000 persons have donned the blue ribbon as the result of the Murphy temperance meetings at Rising Sun, and a temperance league has been formed, with D. S. Wilber as president. A number of old topers are included among the accessions.

Doss Moore, who killed Henry Tow at Mitchell, and then resigned his office of city marshal, has left Mitchell, and his friends give out that he has gone to Central America. His family, however, claim that he has absented himself to secure work, and will return when wanted.

Harry Jay, seventeen years old, son of Dr. J. W. Jay, of Richmond, while standing on the footboard of an electric car, leaning outward, came in collision with a pole and was knocked off. He was unconscious for hours, and fatal injury to the brain is apprehended.

There was an explosion of gas, due to high pressure, at Muncie, and a half dozen men were thrown some distance away. With the exception of William Godin, who was blinded, they escaped material hurt. The gas did not ignite, which made the injury to life and limb less serious.

The alarming increase of scarlet fever, diphtheria and typhoid fever at Evansville is giving cause for serious apprehension, and it is believed that a productive source of trouble is the slaughter house located within the city limits. Another source of danger is the defective sewers.

The same operator who forged a number of small checks at Anderson is believed to have pushed his operations to Marion, where checks on the First National and Marion banks are coming to light, with the names of J. N. Turner & Co. and J. C. Brown spuriously attached thereto.

George Kelly, white, of Jeffersonville, while intoxicated, made a slighting remark about Joseph Baker, colored, of Louisville, Ky., who was passing, and Baker retorted in kind. Kelly then attempted to use a knife, but was checked by a pistol bullet, which entered his thigh. The wound is not fatal.

Mr. Chas. Berry, of Indianapolis, while returning to his hotel after making a social call at Frankfort, was assaulted by two footpads, one of whom struck him a stinging blow over the head. Mr. Berry staggered, but kept his feet, and he let go with his right to good effect. Then he snatched a paling off the fence, with which he made such a gallant fight that he routed the enemy in great style. Mr. Berry received a severe thump on the head, and his fist was bruised in the blow which he delivered therewith, otherwise he was not materially damaged.

For the past two years a camp of the Salvation Army has flourished at Michigan City, and nightly they have paraded the streets with drum-beating and tambourine playing. Saturday night their marching disturbed a political meeting which was being addressed by Congressman Bynum, and this so enraged the mayor that he ordered a general arrest. Yesterday the defendants were pushed to trial, but, after fines had been entered, they were given time to prepare a bond for appeal to the circuit court. They are charged with disturbing a lawful public meeting.

"I've used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my family for a long while, and wouldn't be without it. I know it's a good medicine. John Harrison, postmaster, Guyton, Effingham Co., Ga."

American Pluck.

With all their faults, the American people at least have the quality of pluck. Nothing downs them—nothing causes them to show the white feather—nothing ever throws them into an unreasoning spasm of fright. They are not recklessly defiant of danger, but when it comes they meet it with a brave front. We are not speaking of war. All nations fight. We are speaking of that quality which enables men and women in the presence of a dreaded scourge in the shape of pestilence to be humane, sympathetic and courageous. Time and again in this country we have had epidemics of cholera and yellow fever. In the north more physicians and nurses than were needed have always volunteered in cholera times, and in the south it has been just the same during a yellow fever visit. In New York as soon as it was known, two weeks ago, that several cholera ships were quarantined, doctors and nurses volunteered at once and went to work. More will be on hand when they are needed. This is the American way. If the plague should rage in every state the sick would receive proper attention. There would be no exodus, no panic such as they have had in Russia. In such emergencies our people do not lose their heads. They adopt every sensible safeguard, and at the same time they stand by the sufferers at any risk to themselves. After all, this is one of the best countries in the world to live in.

An Admirable Idea.

Mrs. Reed, one of the lady managers of the world's fair for Maryland, has adopted a plan for awakening interest in national affairs which reflects great credit upon her good sense. She has established a system of classes in American history in the schools of her state and offers as a prize for the best scholar a free trip to the fair. The idea is worthy of imitation in every state of the union. Extensive manufactures, all the fine products of artistic skill and curios and unique displays of material wealth have their place in the grand exhibit which we expect to make to the eyes of the nation at Chicago next fall. But of far greater value to the country than any grand display of this sort is the lesson of patriotism, which should be strongly implanted in the heart of every American boy and girl. Patriotism cannot grow in the soil of ignorance, and Mrs. Reed, of Maryland, may be gaining for herself a name that will far outshine that of the worker in clay or marble, gold or silver whose products will find place in the long list of wonders for sight-seers.

ONE of the few civilians receiving a pension from the United States government is an Irishman of peculiarly tough physique, who has the record of having come alive through an astounding accident. He was carrying a torpedo under his arm, one day at Newport, while he and an officer went in a boat to a point where the explosive was to be sunk, when, by some accident, the electric connection was made and the torpedo exploded. The man went skyward and lit in the water, an eighth of a mile away, with one arm shattered, one side shockingly mangled and an eye blinded. He managed to keep afloat until aid came, and in time recovered sufficiently to return to work, although not at his former dangerous job.

A BOSTON woman, Mrs. Lincoln by name, has effectually proven that the price paid by poor tenants for the miserable quarters which they call homes is sufficient to furnish them well-lighted, well-ventilated and comfortable rooms. To convince the public of this she rented one of the most unhealthful of these houses, had it thoroughly cleansed and repaired, lowered the rents, and finds that she has a generous dividend on her investment. The house is called the Good Luck house, and Mrs. Lincoln has studied the subject of tenement houses for twelve years.

THE rapid growth of the habit of sobriety and temperance is one of the characteristics of the American railway service, the use of intoxicants becoming more and more the exception, although it is said to be the rule in English service. It was subject for comment in an English railway publication recently that the five hundred laborers who were employed in changing the grade of the Great Western railway were not allowed to refresh themselves during working hours with anything stronger than oatmeal water.

AMERICANS have not yet fully caught on to a really big scheme that an Englishman named J. Astley Cooper is steadily exploiting, says an exchange. Mr. Cooper, with Grecian model in mind, wants to institute what he calls an "Anglo-Saxon Olympiad"—that is to say, he would hold a series of international contests between amateur athletes of the English-speaking countries of the world. And he would go further. He would have great intellectual contests for the cultivation of the arts, industries and letters.

A NEW YORK society woman has an album containing photographs of all her costumes for the past ten years. Her husband, it is suggested, probably has a check book full of stubs, not as picturesque but furnishing an interesting sequel to the story.

THE free text-book system has been demonstrated by the city of Boston to be much cheaper than the old method of providing poor pupils with books.

Victoria's Interest in the Fair.

Perhaps it is not sufficiently widely known on this side of the Atlantic that no one in England takes a deeper interest in the forthcoming Columbian exposition at Chicago than Queen Victoria, and doubtless no portion of the world's fair will be more highly appreciated, particularly by the gentler sex, than that specially set apart in the woman's building for the exhibits which her majesty and the English royal family have promised to send. The queen's contributions will comprise some specimens of her own knitting and spinning, and also some pictures which she painted when a girl. Princess Christian, Princess Louise and Princess Beatrice will also send specimens of painting, embroidery and needlework. The wife of Prince Frederick Charles, of Prussia, has, by permission of the emperor of Germany, accepted the presidency of the German division of the woman's board. It is understood that the delegate of the lady managers, who has gone to Europe to secure a lady artist to design the decorations for the woman's building, has had several satisfactory interviews with English painters of note, including Lady Butler, Miss Louise Jopling, Mrs. Alma-Tadema and Miss Montalba.

The Fate of Hymn Writers.

It seems a singular fact that apparently nothing in a literary way will relegate a writer to oblivion so surely as to be the author of a world-famous hymn. Take a few instances. Nearly everyone has heard or sung the line of "Shall We Gather at the River?" and yet how many know even the name of the author, much less the fact that he is living? The writer is Rev. Robert Lowry, D. D., a resident of Plainfield, N. J., says the Boston Globe. In Richmond, Ill., lives Dr. S. Fillmore Bennett. To how many is that name familiar, yet to whom is his familiar church song, "The Sweet By and By," not known? In the interior of New York state lives Mrs. Annie Sherwood Hawks, who wrote those famed lines of: "I Need Thee Every Hour." Hardly known, and never recognized on the streets of New York as she walks out, is Fanny Crosby, the author of countless hymns, among them the famous one, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." It is odd that the veil of obscurity should seem to be the inevitable reward of those whose pens have given us the hymns which have brought consolation and joy to so many thousands.

ADA REHAN, the actress, is to pose as a model for the statue of Justice, which will be one of Montana's exhibits at Chicago. The statue will be eight feet high, of solid silver, worth $50,000, on a gold pedestal worth $250,000. It stands on the globe with advanced foot resting on the continent of North America. In her left hand she will hold balances equally poised, one side of which is filled with gold and the other with silver coin. In her right hand she will hold the sword with arm extended. It is Montana's appeal for bimetallism and the state wishes to make it a feature of the fair.

MR. GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS left property estimated to be worth between $60,000 and $70,000, most of it in sound investments. Every penny of this property Mr. Curtis had accumulated within the last twenty years. He was nearly fifty years of age before he was able to look upon any savings and say that it was his. It is impossible to say what Mr. Curtis might have done had it not been for the struggle which handicapped him for nearly fifteen years, but it is estimated that he gained by his literary and journalistic pen and his lectures between $250,000 and $300,000.

WOMEN have ever availed themselves of their sex's privilege of changing their minds, but it remains for a Chicago woman to cap the climax of feminine inconsistency of purpose. She got a divorce from her husband and now that he's dead and she finds out he had a paid-up life insurance policy she asks to have the divorce set aside that, as a widow, she may enjoy the benefits of the deceased's foresight.

THERE is a touch of humor in the fact that mosquito and musket are from the same root, the Latin word for fly. One comes through the Spanish musca, a fly; the other probably through the Italian. The popular notion that the Mosquito coast of Central America gave name to the Jersey pest is probably an inversion of the true sequence.

FOUR wealthy citizens of Winnipeg, Manitoba, recently started on one of the longest drives on record. Their destination is Jacksonville, Fla., a distance of twenty-five hundred miles. After spending the winter in Florida, the party will, early in the summer, drive from Jacksonville to Chicago, and, after taking in the world's fair, begin the return drive to Winnipeg.

A NOVELTY in counterfeiting lately appeared in Sioux City, Ia., where a young man took new silver quarters, cut out the "quar" and changed the last R to N, making it read "ten dollars," and plated the coins neatly with gold. He bought five or ten cent articles to get the change till he was caught.

AN agent of a New York Bible society reports that in canvassing Erie county he found one hundred and fifty-five families who had never seen a Bible.

One of the best results of the cholera scare is the attention which hundreds of villages have suddenly begun to pay to sewerage and water supply. As a rule, a village in America or anywhere else throws its waste upon or into the ground and gets its drinking water from wells. It is a fact, demonstrated beyond any possibility of doubt, that it takes but a few years for the poisonous elements of the waste matter to find its way through the soil and make the water of all wells unfit for use. Because such water does not kill at once the users do not realize their danger, but observing physicians have long remarked that the inhabitants of most country towns, no matter how well swept by breezes or how pleasantly shaded, show a lower average of health than the residents of cities which, no matter how dirty or crowded, are well sewered and properly supplied with water from streams or lakes. Near New York there are no wide-awake towns which are not putting in sewers, laying water pipes and securing abundant supplies of water. Such work costs money, but it is cheaper than funerals and heartbreaks.

Small Cities.

It is the common belief that Vergennes, Vt., which was incorporated in 1788 and now contains only 1,773 inhabitants, is the smallest city in the United States. People who hold this belief, says a New York exchange, however, are vastly mistaken. They are not aware of the facility with which cities are created under the elastic laws of the state of Kansas, which has no limit on the inferior side to determine when a village may assume the dignity of cityhood. In that state there are no less than 362 incorporated cities, while the total number of cities in the United States is only about 1,667. Of the 362 Kansas cities, only sixteen have more than 5,000 inhabitants; 315 have less than 2,000; 206 have less than 1,000, and ten have less than 100 inhabitants apiece. At the date of the last census the duly incorporated cities of Avilla and Appomattox in that state rejoiced in the sum total of thirty-four inhabitants each! The absurdity of a system which permits such a state of things ought to bring about a change in the laws that would make it impossible.

THE little house in which Benedict Arnold is said to have planned his treason has just been demolished to make room for a larger building. It stood in Market street, Philadelphia, and was over one hundred and twenty-five years old. It was to this spot that Arnold invited Clinton's agent to be sent from New York to meet him; it was here that he lived. A mob chased him to this house once on account of some unpopular measures with which he was supposed to be identified, and from its windows certain celebrities of the city saw him hanging in effigy in 1780. Washington met Jefferson and Hamilton in this cottage in later years, separately, in an endeavor to patch up a truce between those two statesmen.

The joints and muscles are so lubricated by Hood's Sarsaparilla that all rheumatism and stiffness soon disappear. Try it.

TORTURING ECZEMA

No Less Than Five Physicians Consulted. Their Combined Wisdom Followed Without Benefit.

I am sixty-six years old. In August, 1889, was troubled with the peculiar skin disease to which people of my age are subject, known among medical men as eczema. Its first appearance was near the ankles. It rapidly extended over the lower extremities until my legs were nearly one raw sore; from legs the trouble extended across the hips, shoulders and the entire length of the arms, the legs and arms greatly swollen with an itching, burning pain, without cessation. Although the best medical advice attainable was employed, no less than five physicians of the place being consulted and the prescriptions being the result of their combined wisdom, the disease, though apparently checked, would recur in a few days as bad as ever; during its progress my weight fell away about twenty-five pounds. As an experiment I began the use of CUTICURA, following the simple and plain instructions given with the REMEDIES, and in four weeks found myself well, with skin soft and natural in color, the itching and pain entirely relieved.

Editor Iowa Plain Dealer, Cresco, Ia.

The Great Russian.

In parting from Count Tolstoi he gave utterance to the following remarkable and sad words: "I do not know whether what I am doing is for the best or whether I ought to tear myself away from this occupation. All I know is that I cannot leave this work. Perhaps it is weakness; perhaps it is my duty which keeps me here. But I cannot give it up even if I should like to. Like Moses on Mount Horeb, I shall never see the fruit of my labors. I shall never know whether I have been acting for the best or not. My fear is that what I am doing is only a palliative." Surely, when the historian comes to cover the canvas of the latter half of the nineteenth century, he will find no more pathetic figure for his painting than that of the great genius Tolstoi, battling with famine and fever, and striving with all his might and main to bring about the universal brotherhood of mankind, and yet pursued by doubts as to whether, after all, there is not some better way which he does not see.—Cornhill Magazine.

A Cure for Cholera.

There is no use of any one suffering with the cholera when Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can be procured. It will give relief in a few minutes and cure in a short time. I have tried it and know.—W. H. Clinton, Helmetta, N. J. The epidemic at Helmetta was at first believed to be cholera, but subsequent investigation proved it to be a violent form of dysentery, almost as dangerous as cholera. This Remedy was used there with great success. For sale by druggists.

RAILWAY RUMBLINGS.

The Freight Traffic Slightly on the Decline.

News of the Offices and Shops as Revealed by the Reporter's Note Book.

Pittsburg Yardmaster W. E. Davis' train report for the week ending last Saturday shows a decided falling off in the number of trains arriving and departing, and the number of cars handled last week, as compared with the preceding week. This, however, is no indication that there has been a material decrease in the volume of business done by the entire Pittsburg line, for the reason that there may have been several hundred cars en route east and west Saturday, but they were delayed and did not reach this city until after 12 o'clock, the hour for closing the report.

The report is as follows—

No of trains received—
From the east	64
From the west	63
From the north	32
From the south	24
Total		183
No of loaded cars—
From the east	2,117
From the west	1,316
From the north	548
From the south	379
Connecting lines	95
		4,455
No of empty cars—
From the east	217
From the west	881
From the north	61
From the south	69
Connecting lines	53	1,286
Total		5,841
Daily average		834

The above, as compared with the report of the previous week, shows that there was a decrease in the receipt of trains of 11, in loaded cars 231, and in daily average 116. There are handled at the yards an average of 100 cars per day for Fort Wayne shippers and connecting lines at this point, which are not included in the yardmaster's weekly report. Passenger trains and cars are not included in the foregoing report. This week there may be a still greater decrease in the freight business, because this branch was practically suspended last night and today to give the regular and extra passenger trains, of which there were a great many, a clear and uninterrupted right-of-way.

The officials of the Pennsylvania company, headed by President George Roberts, are expected in this city next Monday. They are now making an inspection tour of the southwestern system.

Pittsburg round house off duty list: Engineer T. Tolloy, business; Engineer A. Sine, vacation; Fireman E. Gorrell, attending sale in the country; Fireman J. J. Stocks, sick; Engineer J. E. Long, sick. Fireman S. Grable reported for duty.

F. Charles Meyer, councilman of the tenth ward, and one of the most popular machinists in the Pittsburg shops, is looking for the driver of a certain mud wagon. Monday evening this driver ran into Mr. Meyer's family carriage and smashed a wheel and twisted an axle. The accident happened on Railroad street.

The honor of hauling the first excursion train into the World's fair grounds at Chicago is accredited to Engineer W. Lohrman and Fireman L. G. Dailey, who yesterday pulled a big train from the Pittsburg road into the grounds. The Pittsburg has made arrangements with the Illinois Central by which all the former's excursion trains will switch onto the latter's tracks at Grand Crossing and run into the fair grounds.

James Sullivan, of the Pittsburg car shop, mourns the loss of $12.50. Monday night he placed that amount in his vest pocket and set out for the Masonic Temple in company with his best girl. Arriving at the ticket office he was surprised to find the money missing and had to leave the lady waiting while he went out and struck a friend for the price of the show. Mr. Sullivan has not been able to find the money.

Miss Eva Abdon, stenographer at the electric light offices, has resumed her duties after a month's vacation.

The testing department of the Electric Light works will soon be compelled to work a night force if the orders continue to come in at the present rapid rate.

Bernard Weber, foreman of the pattern department in the Pittsburg shops, returned to his duties this morning after several days' absence on account of the death and funeral of Mrs. Weber's mother.

Wapakoneta, Ohio, is going to put in an electric light plant. The mayor and six councilmen from that city are here today conferring with the officials of the Electric Light company in regard to the matter.

The Wabash pay car came in from the east this morning and distributed a goodly amount of cash among the employes at this point. Supt. E. A. Gould, General Roadmaster A. B. Adams, Division Roadmaster R. A. Houghton and Master Mechanic Frank Morse went west with the car this afternoon.

Mrs. George A. Szink and the Misses Nora and Genevieve Szink, wife and daughters of the assistant foreman in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, left on the Keystone express this afternoon for Harrisburg, Pa. Miss Nora will remain there until the holidays, while Mrs. Szink and Genevieve will return home in about three weeks.

Millions of dollars are being expended by the railroads centering in Chicago in preparations for the expected increase of business during the world's fair. Upward of 1,500 new passenger coaches and over four hundred new engines have been ordered constructed and delivered prior to May 1, 1893, and all the car works and locomotive shops in the country are running overtime to fill the orders. The Illinois Central has given orders for three hundred cars and fifty engines. The Chicago and Northwestern is having built 180 cars and forty engines, and the Lake Shore 120 cars and thirty engines. In about the same proportion all the roads are adding to their equipment. It is estimated that the outlay for additional rolling stock and motive power by the Chicago roads alone will not fall short of $7,000,000.

Hood's Sarsaparilla stands at the head in the medicine world, admired in prosperity and envied in merit by thousands of would-be competitors. It has a larger sale than any other medicine. Such success could not be won without positive merit.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

Simple Method of Removing Wrinkles

It is easier to remove wrinkles than to eradicate any other defect of the face and yet we daily see many faces, otherwise beautiful, rendered prematurely old by that shrinkage of the tissue we call wrinkles. A simple, but positive, treatment is Marquard's Rose Cream, which not only disperses wrinkles speedily but also removes pimples, blotches, eruptions and lends an exquisite glow and transparency to the complexion. For sale by Meyer Bros. & Co., 9 West Columbia street.

A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera, but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made." For sale by druggists.

NORMAN LICHTY, Des Moines, Iowa:

Dear Sir—A box of HEADACHE CAPSULS were handed to me and I have used them with perfect success. They cannot be recommended too highly. Could not possibly do without them to sufferers with this common, though terrible, complaint.

THE SITUATION IN INDIANA.

What Both Parties Are Doing at the State Capital.

[Indianapolis Sun]

The republican managers have roused themselves from the temporary lethargy superinduced by the collapse of the apportionment suit and have awakened to the fact that the republican party in Indiana occupies no vantage ground. Both Chairmen Gowdy and Taggart have secured rooms apart from committee headquarters, where they seclude themselves and are at home only to a select few. Here those schemes are concocted which will be brought into play toward the wind-up, and, perhaps, decide the contest. It is a fact that but little money if being used in Indiana and not much "stuff" has yet been placed at the disposal of the state committees. The democracy is so sure that it will capture the Hoosier state that it is turning its eyes toward New York and declaring that the whole business hinges on the Empire state.

WE WILL CELEBRATE.

Gottlieb Haller's Sixth Ward Meeting Will be the Largest of the Campaign.

Great preparations are being made by Mr. Gottlieb Haller and the democrats of the Sixth ward to make the demonstration in that ward tomorrow evening the largest of the campaign.

The Hendricks club, the Jeffersonian, the Eighth ward and all democratic clubs in the city will participate. W. H. Shambaugh, Judge Allen Zollars, Judge C. M. Dawson and H. C. Berghoff will address the meeting. A huge bonfire will be a feature of the evening. The line of March for the evening is as follows: The Jeffersonian and other clubs will join the Hendricks club at the Wayne hotel. The parade will then move east to Calhoun, south on Calhoun to Wayne, west on Wayne to Broadway, south on Broadway to Jefferson, east on Jefferson to Calhoun, south on Calhoun to Mr. Gottlieb Haller's residence, in front of which the demonstration will be held.

ATTENTION HENDRICK'S CLUB.

The members of the Hendricks club are earnestly requested to meet at the Wayne hotel tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 7 o'clock to participate in the grand parade, and pole raising at Mr. Gottlieb Haller's in the Sixth ward. The demonstration tomorrow evening will be the grandest of the campaign. Let the Hendricks club do honor to the occasion.

Mme. M. Yale's

La Freckla

Mme. M. Yale, the celebrated beauty and complexion specialist, said in one of her famous lectures on "Beauty and the Complexion": Young ladies, remember a pretty face will win for you love, and love will win for you a husband. Married ladies, remember with the decline of youth and beauty your husband's love will grow cold. Youth and beauty is woman's power. Be on your guard against wrinkles, old age and ugliness; they have broken up many happy homes.

FRECKLES.

LA FRECKLA is the name of Madame Yale's famous discovery. It is the only Freckle cure in existence—3 days is sufficient in most cases to effect a cure, and one week where the case is of long standing. There are no Freckles on record that La Freckla will not cure—guaranteed in every instance. For Tan and Sunburn it is instantaneous, removing it instantly upon the first application. The most perfect complexion in the world was obtained by the use of La Freckla—$1 per bottle. Sold at all Druggists', shipped from Chicago in plain wrappers. Mme. Yale's Famous Book, "Beauty and the Complexion," will be sent free to any address upon receipt of 6 cents postage. Ladies may consult Mme. Yale free of charge by mail or at the Temple of Beauty in person. All correspondence strictly confidential.

Send for Price List of Mme. M. Yale's Remedies for removing Wrinkles, Developing the Bust, turning gray hair back to its original color and on all matters pertaining to Beauty. Mme. Yale is the only recognized Beauty Scientist. She can make an old face young again and all women beautiful.

CHICAGO CAPTURED.

A Series of Grand Concerts Has Just Been Given by the Above Organization in Chicago.

The Chicago Times says of Sousa's new band: "Their attack is perfect, the shading most effective, and the refinement, particularly in the planissimo passages, of a high order."

The Tribune says: "The cath slam vented itself in encore after encore, and in encores of encores; and the enthusiasm was merited."

"The News comments the "velvety smoothness of the planissimo passages, the neatness of attack, the certainty and precision, etc., and says there is little lacking in what is probably the best band in the country."

The Evening Post says: "There is not a military organization in the country that can play with such finish, such delicacy and such lovely tone contrasts as this showed."

The Herald says: "In such work as the overture to Semiramide and the ballet music to Faust, Sousa obtained magnificent effects, telling contrasts, and at times an overwhelming volume of tone."

"The Globe says: "No one can look at the man and witness his delicate and masterly control over an immense band, without being compelled to recognize his genius, his unrivalled genius, as the foremost of America's band leaders."

The Buffalo Courier says: "Each musician in the band is an artistic performer, and the ensemble under Sousa's baton is irresistible to anybody with an appreciative ear."

The Detroit Free Press says: "In fine, delicate passages, the new band excels anything of the kind ever in Detroit, many of the 'runs' being rendered with an equal amount of delicacy to that displayed by a fine symphony orchestra."

The Detroit Tribune says: "Among the musical people of Detroit Mr. Sousa has firmly established one fact, namely, that the New Marine band conducted by himself is the greatest military band in the country."

The Buffalo Commercial says: "The first appearance of the new band resulted in a flood of praise and compliment, and comprised for Mr. Sousa a lasting reputation in this city in which he may well be proud."

The Harrisburg Telegram says that "in purity and beauty of tone, in feeling, expression, in contrasts of light and shade, in the perfection of the rapid passages, and in the velvety smoothness and sweetness of the planissimos, the playing of the band was a revelation."

FAIRS AND FESTIVALS.

A Large Crowd in Attendance at the Opening

Of the Carnival Last Evening—Fair to be Given by the Ladies of Grace Church.

Brilliant electric lights shown brightly on hundreds of faces at the opening of the military carnival at the Princess rink last evening. The ladies have been very successful in artistically arranging the bunting and draperies and, as many of them are costumed in colors to match the drapings, the scene presented was indeed a pretty one. One scarcely recognized the old rink.

The two military companies, the Rifles and Zollinger battery, headed by the First Regiment band, paraded the streets and then escorted the speaker of the evening, Mr. W. H. Shambaugh, to the rink. As they entered the hall they were met by the following young ladies: Misses Grace White, Marabel Morrison, Ayda Morrison, Maude Zollinger, Stella Gregg, Colia Higgins, Kate and Lizzie Chapin, Hattie Fowler, Minnie Smith, Mary O'Rourke, Vallie Bledsoe, Eva Beebe, Alice Crane and Inez Dougal in behalf of whom Miss Grace Mungen presented a beautiful banner of yellow and black to the Zollinger battery boys with the following words:

To the Members of the Fort Wayne Zollinger Battery:

In presenting you this banner it affords me great pleasure to represent your many lady friends. It is but a slight token for the praiseworthy manner in which you have discharged your responsible duties. Your interest and zeal have not only one the esteem and confidence of your friends and those brought into immediate contact with you, but have radiated far and wide so that you are not only a credit to yourselves, but to the country at large. That you may long continue in the service you so admirably adorn is the wish that accompanies this souvenir.

Colored Sergeant Emmett Peady and Captain W. W. Mungen accepted the banner in a few well chosen words.

Hon. W. H. Shambaugh then stepped to the platform and formally opened the carnival by delivering an eloquent address.

The most attractive part of the evening's program was the drill by the Light Footed infantry, composed of the following young ladies: Misses Ionna McQuiston, Jessie Niereiter, Anna Bathner, Ida Kickley, Florence Knight, Betty Jones, Eva Fessenden, Ida Jones, Flossie Weldon, Ellie Grunel, Minnie Hemstead and Lena Hoover. Major Weldon was the commander. The young ladies were costumed in the regimental colors, yellow and black.

A booth that has not yet been spoken of is the one in charge of Mrs. A. H. Long, in which is exhibited the beautiful life-sized doll-baby to be voted, to the most popular little girl. So far the names and votes are Ester McDonald, 15; Linda McKinnie, 5; Virginia White, 10, Georgina Bond, 11; Marian Watt, 1.

The program for this evening will be a violin solo by Miss Lillie Mathis, accompanied by Miss Dot Boylan; another exhibition drill by the young ladies, and the Omaha Drill team will give an exhibition of gun mounting and artillery practice. Music will be furnished by the First Regiment band.

The ladies of the Grace church are very busy just at present preparing for a fair to be given in the near future. The object of the fair will be to raise funds for a new church building. These ladies have already won for themselves great credit and honor and they are zealous to continue their work until the new church is built and paid for. Everyone in the congregation is to be called upon to assist in some way, either by giving or making something. Several cantatas will be rendered during the fair, one, entitled "The Jolly Farmers," will be specially entertaining.

The following committee has been constituted to solicit from the members and friends of the church for the bazar: Mrs. Zartman, Mrs. Paulus, Mrs. Charles Gumpper, Mrs. Martin Connett, Mrs. Hessard, Mrs. Souder, Mrs. Archer. The other committees are as follows:
